RUSSIA MAKES A NEW START IN THE WAR

The Soldiers' and Workmen's Delegates Want the Army Reorganized and Offensive Resumed.

Dispatches from Petrograd to the Exchange Telegraph, say that the Congress of Soldiers' and Workmen's delegates from the whole of Russia, has voted confidence in the provisional government, and unanimously adopted a resolution demanding the immediate resumption of the offensive and the reorganization of the army. A war cabinet was formed, including the leaders of the Russian army and navy and technical representatives.

Redcliff Robber Gets Three Years

At the police court in Medicine Hat R. J. Hunt and E. N. Nyland pleaded guilty to being in possession of stolen goods. The goods which they had were some of those stolen from W. H. Todd's clothing store here on June 3rd. Hunt was sentenced to three years imprisonment and Nyland, was let off on suspended sentence on condition that he would enlist.

The men were arrested at McLeod and on being searched it was found they were wearing new suits of clothes under their overcoats. The suits were found by the police it was learned they had stored the balance of the stolen goods at this factory hotel, Medicine Hat. This has also been recovered and identified as among the goods missing from the store here the night of the robbery.

Looked For Rain Comes in Earnest

Although a heavy fall of small hail accompanied the rain storm which passed over this district this afternoon, it did no permanent damage. On the contrary the rain will do a heap of good. It is the first real good shower we have had this season. The long dry spell was beginning to make the farmers feel a bit anxious but this fall of rain now practically assures at least an average crop for this year.

The hail may have done a little damage to the further advanced garden stuffs but it will not be serious.

Concern For Soldiers Next Thursday

At the Annual theatre last Saturday evening Comrade Bridges, of Medicine Hat, was given an opportunity to address the audience on behalf of the Great War Veterans' Association. He explained that this association was desirous of securing funds for the purpose of assisting returned soldiers and their families until the returned men were sufficiently strong to take up their usual line of work.

As a means of securing these funds he stated that he would give a concert in the Annual on Thursday evening, June 28th. The program will be provided by talent from Medicine Hat. Among those on the program will be Miss Polly Freeman, the little Misses Harriet and Rachel Hogg, champion Highland Fling dancers of Canada, Willie and Robert Lander in a singing exhibition, and Mrs. Capt. Petty will recite "Remember Me, Vets' Rhyme".

Mr. Higgins has offered the theatre for the evening free of charge. As the cause is a worthy one, we trust there will be a good turn out.

ONTARIO CROPS GOOD

An optimistic report of crop conditions throughout the province was issued last Tuesday by the Ontario department of agriculture. Not only are the spring crops developing in a most satisfactory manner but in the most satisfactory manner but every other variety of crop as well, with the exception of apples. Other varieties of fruit are said to be doing well.

Prairie Flower Lodge Has Busy Night

The Prairie Flower Rebekah lodge of this town had a most interesting evening at their regular meeting last Monday evening. During the evening eight new candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the society. To assist with this work a degree team from the sister lodge in Medicine Hat was present and they were accompanied by thirty other visiting sisters. The work was impressively put on and after the business of the evening was finished a pleasant social hour was spent, during which refreshments were served. The local lodge has been gradually increasing its membership during the past year and is now in a flourishing condition.

Belgium Must be Restored Says Wilson

President Wilson has definitely committed the United States to the restoration of Belgium to the Belgian people.

In reply to Baron Moncheur, chief of the Belgian special mission, who on themselves asked especially the case of Belgium, not until this week the president said: "There is not one among us who does not today welcome the opportunity of expressing to you our heartfelt sympathy and friendship, and our solemn determination that on the inevitable day of victory Belgium shall be restored to the place also has so richly won among the self-respecting and respected nations."

While it has been generally understood that the president's doctrine of the right of small nationalities to govern themselves covered especially the case of Belgium, not until this week the president said: "There is not one among us who does not today welcome the opportunity of expressing to you our heartfelt sympathy and friendship, and our solemn determination that on the inevitable day of victory Belgium shall be restored to the place also has so richly won among the self-respecting and respected nations."

New Commander Wants Conscription

NEW COMMANDER
"I have no wish to interfere with the current political controversies," said Sir Arthur Currie, the new commander of the Canadian corps in France, "but my personal conviction is that the only solution of the Canada recruiting problem is conscription."

"I believe that many difficulties which now threaten the adoption of such a policy would disappear before prompt and bold action. My experience in France shows me, not a politician but as a soldier, the necessity for conscription if we desire to maintain the full strength of our fighting divisions to the end of the war."

A start was made this week on what promises to develop into another thriving industry for Redcliff. The old Ornamental Iron plant is to be the home of the new enterprise, and for the past few days a number of men have been employed re-arranging the machinery and otherwise fitting up the building putting it in shape to commence real operations by the first of next month.

R. R. Stoner, one of the original owners of the town site, has taken over this plant and it is his intention to use it for manufacturing a line of farm implements. Among the first lines to be manufactured are grain tanks, wagon boxes, bolt augers, wheel harrows, grain, ricklers and drag harrows. From this it is the intention to branch out into all other lines of farm machinery as soon as the business and the demand warrants.

The building and plant now being prepared for this work are well equipped for the purpose. There are already in the building all kinds of machinery for both iron and wood work, and there is also in connection a well equipped foundry. The machinery is now being arranged so that the ground floor will be used as an iron shop and the second floor for the wood working. For the present the third floor will be used as a store room. An elevator connecting the three floors will be installed on the west side of the building to make the work of loading and unloading cars at the siding more convenient.

Although the present staff is only engaged in the arrangement of the machinery it is expected that everything will be in shape for the skilled workmen to commence operations by the first of next month, and it is expected they will have some of the goods above mentioned on exhibition by the middle of the month. As soon as the engines were put in operation last Monday the plant was besieged with repair work from the other industries in town and now a small staff is busy looking after this line. Previously all this class of work was sent out of town. The opening of this plant will also mean that farmers of the district can also get all kinds of repair work for their machinery done here.

Owing to the present condition of the market in all lines of raw material necessary for the construction of the articles this new plant intends to turn out, the task of making the preliminary arrangements has been very hard and at times most discouraging. Stoner, however, stuck to the task before him, and after overcoming many obstacles was successful in securing the necessary materials to allow the new industry to get away to a good start.

In the initial stages the new plant will employ fifteen or twenty men but it is naturally expected that this number will be increased from time to time as the business develops.

Minnesota Has Canadian Battalion

Recruiting efforts to raise a complete battalion of Canadian troops in Minnesota and St. Paul were opened at Eighth Street and Hennepin avenue Minneapolis.

This act was taken following an agreement between the United States and Canadian officials, by which reciprocity is to be recognized in the recruiting of Americans in Canada and the enlistment of Canadians in America. Officers will be opened throughout the United States and Canada for this purpose.

American citizens who are not accepted for the Canadian battalion. There will be no mobilization of Canadian troops, any American citizen all troops being sent to Winnipeg for training as soon as accepted.

Union of Maritime Provinces Suggested

The New Brunswick provincial parliament has adopted a resolution in favor of negotiating with Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island relative to the formation of a legislative union of the Maritime provinces.

Fire Brigade Elects New Fire Chief

At the regular meeting of the volunteer fire brigade held last Monday evening, Wm. Keats was elected fire chief and W. J. Fairbairn captain. It is the intention of the brigade to have a practice run in the near future. In discussing matters in the interest of the brigade it was brought out that on different occasions when it was called out the met experienced some inconvenience because of the fact that some outsiders occupied places on the hose wagon and helped themselves to members' uniforms while others stood around and gave orders contrary to those given by the chief. The new chief has been asked to request that this be discontinued in the future.

LOCAL CASUALTIES.

W. S. McLEAN.

On the 9th of last September, W. S. McLean, of Redcliff, was reported missing. Since that time no word has been received from him either by his relatives in Scotland or by friends here.

As Mr. McLean was a member of the local Masonic lodge the officers of that lodge have been in constant communication with the Military Department with the hope of getting some more definite information. The department officials have been unfruitful in their efforts along this line and have frequently written. A letter from the Records office was received by the secretary of the lodge today which leaves little doubt as to his fate. The letter states that "owing to the length of time that has elapsed since he was reported missing, and to the fact that his name has not appeared on any official list of prisoners, it is regretted that the only conclusion which can be arrived at is that he is dead. For official purposes the new industry is presumed to have occurred on or since the 9th day of September, 1915."

At the time he enlisted here with the 63rd, McLean was a member of the firm of McLachlan & McLean, builders and contractors. His mother and sister are residing in Glasgow, Scotland.

PRIVATE RAUSCHENBERGER.
Mrs. Lina Rauschenberger, now of Medicine Hat, has been officially notified that Private Rauschenberger was officially reported admitted to the third general hospital at Boulogne on June 4, 1917. He has suffered a gunshot wound in hand. Prior to enlisting in Boulogne he was employed as a barber in Rauschenberger's shop, opposite the Redcliff hotel. He joined the 15th and was awarded the first from that battalion to go over to France.

Food Control For Canada Appointed

Hon. W. J. Hanna, former provincial secretary for Ontario and still a member of the Ontario government, will be food controller for the Dominion of Canada. The announcement was made in the commons by Sir Robert Borden, who stated that Mr. Hanna had agreed to accept the position on the condition that there should be no salary attached to it. The order-in-council appointing Mr. Hanna as food controller and detailing his powers was tabled by the prime minister.

CHILDREN IN BELGIUM ARE IN GREAT NEED

Canadian Boy Writes Home and Tells Pitiable Condition—Redcliff Ladies Will Try to Help Unfortunates.

We reprint below a letter written by a Canadian boy now at the front, in this mother in Eastern Canada. The letter speaks for itself and as it has already been read by some women in town they have been so moved by the conditions revealed that they think Redcliff should do something towards helping the unfortunate ones. In order that steps may be taken along this line they have asked us to announce that a meeting of the women in town will be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Fairbairn next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The following is the letter:

Somewhere in Belgium, Dear Mother—I am here in the land of old devastation and destruction as you could never imagine if you tried for ever—Oh, it is awful, houses, villages and towns all torn to shreds of earth and stone, you could bury 10 teams of horses—houses ruined, everything as though some terrible cyclone and storm the places and ruined them for ever.

I am still driving a car for a price—next to the Crown Prince of Belgium, and mother I want to tell you in what I am about to tell you.

His brother, Prince Reginald Du Croi and his mother, the Crown Princess, were taken to Germany as prisoners by the Germans, the brother escaped but his sister, the princess was with Edith Cavell who was taken prisoner. They tried to get Miss Cavell out but could do nothing. The princess was arrested with her mother and was condemned to be shot with her, but her royal birth saved her (her mother is King Albert of Belgium's sister) but she was sentenced to five years imprisonment in Germany, hard labor. They don't know where she is and her brothers wish she had been shot. It was terrible to hear. The brother who escaped has a hospital here and yesterday I was there when 300 little children to Germany, came—naked, sick, wounded, hurt little children from less than one year to twelve years old. I don't think I did not know their own names.

You see mother they go to a town and take the big boys and girls, women and men to Germany to make munitions, leaving the very old and very little ones to starve. Awful, but I don't think I did little children. You would break your heart mother if you saw them, even I burst out crying—poor little things. Isn't it awful to think the little ones must suffer.

They cut holes in bags and put their little legs through and tied them around their necks. Dozens were in bed covered up no clothes to put on. I have given all I can but money can't buy a little baby, eggs 25c each, meat $2.50 a lb, butter $2.50 a lb, rice 25c a lb, a rabbit $4.00.

I have seen very old men and women stand in line for hours to get a little bit of potato or meat just to keep them from starving. They were good industrious people not very poor and many in fair circumstances before the war and now they do not even know where their children are. Anything will be gladly received for the children. You could send the clothing to Hosierville, both, Prince Reginald Du Croi, Papering, Belgium. Give me clothing for these little children no matter what you go without—the suffering is beyond description—anything, stockings, underwear, dresses, anything that a child could use.

I have been from one end of France to the other and from one end of Belgium to the other belonging to the allies and I have seen things I will never forget.

Good-bye mother, and work for these dear little boys and girls.

A NUISANCE.

For over a year now the people living on Third, Fourth and Fifth streets in the vicinity of Broadway, have put up with a nuisance which is now almost unbearable. We refer to the coyote that has been chained up in the centre of the town just where our main thoroughfare. The continual barking and howling at all hours of the night and morning keep those who live in that neighborhood from their necessary sleep.

Noris this the worst of it. We are informed that this pet sometimes breaks loose and meanders around town killing people's hens and chickens.

It's about time the town authorities compelled the owner of this animal to make some other disposition of his pet.

ABOUT BASEBALL.

At the beginning of this season a baseball club was organized here. Those actively interested in the game assured us that prospects were better than ever before for putting a good team in the field. With this assurance the people became interested and liberally supported every movement on the part of the committee in charge to raise the necessary funds to properly equip the club. We understand the required amount of money has been raised but so far nothing further has been heard from the baseball team.

Of course we are aware that the local boys got a raw deal from the Medicine Hat League but we are informed that the "outside" teams have signified their willingness to give us an exhibition game, yet nothing has been done to get them here. As the season is now well advanced and there appears to be little prospect of the money raised being used for legitimate baseball purposes, it might be a good idea if the committee would turn it over to one of the many patriotic funds.

MAKE HIM DO IT.

C. W. Cawthorne one of the members of the Saskatchewan legislature who was exposed after an investigation, and expelled from the legislature, entered the field again as an independent in his old constituency. In one of his campaign speeches he promised to expose further graft on the part of the government, proof of which he claimed to have in his possession. He was to have made this exposition at his meeting the following evening. The next day, however, he retired from the contest and since then has closed up like the proverbial oyster, refusing to divulge the information which he claimed to be in possession.

These actions only reveal more clearly the calibre of the man. But the people of Saskatchewan should not let the matter drop there. If Mr. Cawthorne is in possession of proof of wrong doing on the part of any government official he should be compelled to throw his cards on the table.

A UNITED STAND.

President Wilson's note to Russia, re-stating American war motives, and urging a united stand against the foes of liberty, has evoked prompt endorsement from Britain and France. Great Britain has also sent a fresh declaration of principles to Petrograd. Her purpose from the beginning, she says, has been defence of her territory and enforcement of respect for international pledges.

President Wilson has made it plain to the Russians that, while the United States is not waging war for conquest, it is determined to fight until certain great wrongs have been righted. "There is no disposition," he says, "to wipe the Teutons off the map. But there is a deep conviction that peace without the punishment of the ones responsible for this holocaust of blood, would be remissness of duty on the part of the conquerors."

General Pershing, U. S. A., had a quiet chat with His Majesty King George the other day on his way to the battle front in France. It was a simple, sincere and fervent exchange of mutual good will between the monarch of the British Empire and the representative of Uncle Sam's fighting forces in Europe. Nothing of vast importance was said in this brief confab, but the fact that it took place is of impressive significance in itself. The junction of Buckingham Palace and Columbia's chief of staff is one of the happiest auguries of the times.

Mrs. McKinney, of Claresholm, the first woman in Canada to be elected to a legislative body, is now in great demand to address ladies organizations throughout the province. Mrs. McKinney is a sister of Mrs. James Haslam, who lives just west of town. We understand she will visit her sister there in the near future. When she does it would be a good opportunity for the ladies of Redcliff to arrange for a reception here in her honor.

It is interesting that the deduction of earnings from the Patriotic fund allowance of soldiers' dependents. In the past if a soldier's wife did any work for which she received wages, the amount she earned was deducted from her allowance. This was a foolish regulation and we are glad to see it has been abandoned.

Redcliff parents are exceedingly fortunate in having a caretaker at the school who is interested in their children. During the heavy hail and rain storm this afternoon, just at four o'clock, he gathered the children back into the school building after they had been dismissed and kept them there till the storm was over. It's a great thing to have one man around where there are children.

The coal strike in District 15 still drags along and appears to be no nearer a settlement now than it was six months ago. In the mean time winter is drawing closer every day and in the long run the town public will pay the price. This "dilly-dallying" is just another case of "the public be damned."

A full blooded Cree Indian of Oklahoma has purchased 660,000 worth of liberty bonds. Oklahoma, as its name indicates, was originally an Indian state, and no doubt the reasons some of its founders are able to purchase liberty bonds to this extent is because Oklahoma has been a prohibition state ever since it joined the union.

Up until the last few months Mrs. Nellie McClung was looked upon as Canada's leading lady. Now Mrs. McKinney, M. L. A. for Claresholm, Alberta, enjoys that enviable distinction, and Mrs. McClung will find it hard to catch a place among the ordinary chorus girls. Such a life even among the fairer sex.

Uge Allies to Adopt Orphans

A largely adopted citizens' meeting at the London Opera House adopted a resolution proposed by the lord mayor, urging the government to initiate a policy of repatriation in the shape of ceaseless attacks on German towns and cities in order that their populations may experience the effects of such methods of warfare, and thus be induced to force the German authorities to cease their attacks on open towns.

Several local mayors and members of the House of Commons were present, and it was urged that repatriation should be undertaken jointly by at least two of the allied powers, namely France and England, and that cities as Berlin and Frankfurt should be selected.

Mrs. Heese, of Illinois state, arrived in town last week to join her husband who is employed in the glass plant here.

Rev. H. C. B. Gibson left last Sunday to visit friends in Saskatchewan. During his absence Rev. A. E. Dugan, of Regina, will look after his work here.

Selling out the entire stock of groceries, confectionery, cigars and tobacco at the Home Cooking Store to make room for new goods.

The Amberg theatre was taxed to capacity last Wednesday evening. Charlie Chaplin was the attraction of the evening and, judging from the applause, he is a popular artist among old and young alike.

F. F. O'Fallon's lamp? coyote got loose one day last week and helped itself to a few barn yard chickens in the west end of town. At the present price of meat this isn't no doubt, but an expensive feast for Mr. Coyote.

In this issue of the Review appears a list of bands in the town and school district which are liable to forfeiture unless the taxes on same are paid on or before the 15th of August, next. Look it over and see if any of yours is in the list.

THE PRIME MINISTER, who has been summer dress goods. Don't fail to see them. Gibson & Tupper.

Quite a number of new families have moved to town during the past week. The heads of these families have been working in the different plants here all winter and spring.

W. G. Gandy, of the Belling Mill staff, purchased a five-roomed brick residence on First street last week. The house is situated on lots 1 and 2, block 28.

Conquing rugs still sell. Now is your time to get beautiful, convenient, sanitary and economical floor coverings at Gibson & Tupper's.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church will hold their sale of work on Saturday afternoon and evening, June 30th, at the Sykes Building. All kind of work to be sold. Also home cooking and refreshments.

There will be a meeting of the ladies of the town at the home of Mrs. W. J. Fairbank next Wednesday afternoon to see if arrangements can be made for sending some clothing to the poor, unfortunate Belgian children.

Food Supply As Important as Men

"In this war, and especially at this stage, food power is co-equal with man-power," said Lord Rhonda, the new food controller, in an interview this week. "The problem of Great Britain's food primarily depends upon the supply, and in the main the solution of the problem of supply lies in America. I am sure they will get it done."

"The whole problem of the nation's food primarily depends upon the supply," he continued, "and unless we can be assured of food sufficient to enable this and other allied countries of Europe to carry on the war to a successful conclusion, it would be almost superfluous to appoint a food controller. The most perfect system of distribution and that most equitable in regulation of prices would be a mere waste of time and effort, unless every measure is taken to keep up the allied food supply."

Peace With Huns is Treason to Allies

The dumb, in secret session, has passed a resolution for an immediate movement by the Russian troops. The resolution declares that separate peace with Germany or prolonged inactivity on the battle front will be ignominious towards Russia's allies, for which future generations never would pardon the Russia of the present day. "The dumb therefore considers," the resolution adds, "that the safety of Russia and the maintenance of its liberties which have obtained it in an immediate offensive in co-operation with Russia's allies."

Canadian at Head of Forces in France

Sir Arthur Currie, who has been acting commander of the Canadian corps since Sir Julian Byng left, returned to headquarters, having been authorized to take over the command.

Sir Arthur went to France with the original Canadian overseas contingent as brigadier, and has had a part in all the major engagements of the corps. His appointment greatly pleases the men in the trenches. He is the first Canadian to command the corps. His predecessors, Generals Alderson and Byng, were both imperial officers of long service and distinction.

Prime of Canada For Conscription

In his charge at the opening of the annual session of the spread of the Prime's Land, Archbishop Matheson, primate of all Canada, made an appeal for the endorsement of the legislation proposed by the federal government, dealing with enlistments.

"I trust," he said, "that this meeting of our spread will place itself on record not only in sympathetic, but in stern support of some method of selective conscription calculated to fill up immediately the complement of men required for our Dominion."

"Splendidly as Canada has done in manifold ways she might have done better were it not for the hindrances which have resulted from the want of more united action. It is unspeakably deplorable that our differences and divisions, political and otherwise, instead of being allayed in the presence of common danger, have in certain directions been greatly accentuated."

Reims a Pantheon For Unknown Dead

Conversion of the battle-torn cathedral at Reims into a pantheon for the unknown dead of all the armies fighting France for the common cause of democracy has been determined upon by the French government. The plan, to be put into execution as soon as the war is over, has been announced in dispatches to the headquarters in Washington of the French restoration fund. It is proposed that the cathedral shall not be restored, but that the remains of all Allies shall place their battle flags within what remains of the historic edifice, and then shall be formally dedicated as the monument to the heroic dead.

STAMPEDE

Visitors Will Find Ample Accommodation at Medicine Hat—Great Crowds Going.

Every home in Medicine Hat beside the hotels and rooming houses will be thrown open to the visitors to the Stampede on July 10-11-12-13. In addition to the accommodations the Stampede committee has secured 3,000 beds and bedding for them to be put up in schools, churches and other large buildings to accommodate the 30,000 people who are expected.

The big prizes offered for the Stampede contests, for the horse races, the baseball tournament and the night street Carnival are attracting competitors from all over America, so that the show will certainly be the biggest and best four day event ever staged in the west.

Cheap rates have been secured on all railways to Medicine Hat with exceedingly cheap rates on certain excursions days.

Announcement made by the post office department that parcels for remittance to Russia in Europe will not be accepted. The route via Vancouver and Japan to Vladivostok which has for some time been the only one open, has been closed for the present.
